I am a work in progress. I'm a husband, dad, writer, dramatist, pastor, theologically conservative, creationist, blogger, writer, and friend of sinners.

How often should I come back for updates?

If you like what I offer then I would check back often. I update my blog every day with the exception of days when I'm not online. You'll see scripts that haven't been published as well as articles. I usually blog anything useful. I also take notes on books that I am reading as well as interesting things i discover in music, the web, and in conversation with other people.

Can I use the stuff on this site?

Please do! The only thing I ask is that you don't claim that you wrote the material. By the way, if you use something from my blog, I'd appreciate a credit line and a link back to this site.
