Do Not Worry

Take comfort in the One who tells us not to worry. We can become greatly troubled when our lives are in the spin cycle of God’s redemptive plan. Even in the midst of tears, tragedy, and loss we can celebrate through tears knowing that the story is not over, our lives are in his hands. I’ve always said. “I don’t like surprises. It’s a character flaw I’ve dealt with for years. I want to know what’s around the corner but life isn’t like that,. We just don’t know. But can I just say this: The real juice of life is in the not knowing. A young girl named Mary learned this truth.
