

Getting ready for Darlene's Quest in Nashville

Darlene will head to Nashville tomorrow in order to find a job, visit friends and perhaps look for a place to stay. We've tried to make Louisiana School system work for Caleb but he has been unsuccessful here so we've made the decision to be apart for the year so that Caleb can graduate. Praying for God to really show us what to do and how to make things work