Minister’s Wives Conference

It’s been a good weekend at the LBC Minister’s wives conference. Karen Alexander-Doyel did a great job keynoting. Darlene shared a testimony, We did Anniversary to Remember and Messages. We’ve got to get some rest and then head to Winfield for tomorrow’s worship. I have tomorrow night off. So relieved things are going well right now. We are just about ready to show off the next CP Rant. Winding down the rear… Lots of driving ahead of me.
