

Starting another week

Darlene is now on the road back to Tennessee. I'm about to go to bed. Looking forward to returning to work tomorrow to get ready for annual meeting. I'll be going to FBC Pon~~chatoula~~, LA Saturday which will make for a long stretch without time off. But overall I feel like I'l going to be fine. I feel rested. Window open. A good cool night which should get down to 46.
